

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Arbor Day has become a national and state symbol of faith and hope in the future of our republic; and,

WHEREAS, Tree planting is truly an investment in the future--the future of our people, and the future of our state and nation; and,

WHEREAS, Sioux Falls, Rapid City, Mitchell and Aberdeen will join an elite number of 205 cities nationwide and be named Tree City, U. S. A., for their urban forest management practices of 1980; and,

WHEREAS, The Women's Auxiliary of the South Dakota Association of Conservation Districts will receive a national award in the organization category from the National Arbor Day Foundation for their Arbor Day Information Packets which were distributed to schools throughout South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Benefits are provided by tree and forest resources to South Dakotans in every area of the state, including timber in the Black Hills, shelterbelts and windbreaks on our plains, and the comfort and beauty of the community forests in our cities and towns; and,

WHEREAS, The continuance of these resources and benefits is possible only through active programs in shelterbelt establishment, renovation, and replacement; community tree planting and care; and sound forest management:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 24, 1981, as

ARBOR DAY

In South Dakota, and I urge all South Dakotans to recognize and appreciate the importance of trees and forests to South Dakota and the Nation, to enthusiastically manage our existing benefits for a never-ending yield of all benefits, and on this day to plant a tree for South Dakota's future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of April, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One
